

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Annie J Mbale

St. Louis Mosaic Project

314.615.8148

ambale@worldtradecenter-stl.com

Mayank Jain

School Coordinator

636.575.9348

HindiUSASTL@gmail.com

St. Louis Mosaic Project

Hindi USA - St. Louis becomes the 166th St. Louis Mosaic Project Ambassador School

[St. Louis, Missouri] (January 24, 2024) - Hindi USA (St. Louis Chapter), a prominent advocate for Hindi language and Indian culture in the United States, proudly announces its partnership with the St. Louis Mosaic Project Ambassador School Program. Situated in Ballwin, Missouri, Hindi USA's St. Louis chapter is a dedicated ambassador school, solidifying its commitment to nurturing diversity and inclusion within the local community.

The St. Louis Mosaic Project Ambassador School Program is a pivotal platform for schools and organizations to celebrate diversity and inclusivity, fostering a profound sense of belonging for all community members. The partnership between Hindi USA's St. Louis chapter and Mosaic Project is poised to contribute significantly to this initiative, fostering cross-cultural connections and understanding.

Embracing its role within the Ambassador School Program, Hindi USA - St. Louis Chapter pledges ongoing active involvement in initiatives designed to support and empower the immigrant community, particularly those who have migrated from India. A recent analysis conducted by St. Louis University demographer Ness Sandoval reveals that residents from India now constitute the largest immigrant group in the region. The array of programs offered by Hindi USA St. Louis, including Hindi Language classes, Indian cultural events, annual food drive, and language resources, is tailored to facilitate the integration of Hindi-speaking families into the local community, aligning seamlessly with the Mosaic Project's mission to provide essential resources for community integration. The organization will actively continue its engagement in initiatives to uplift and empower the Indian immigrant community.

"We are thrilled to collaborate with the St. Louis Mosaic Project Ambassador School Program," remarked Mayank Jain, School Coordinator of Hindi USA - St. Louis Chapter. "Our organization is deeply committed to preserving and promoting the rich heritage of the Hindi language and Indian culture, and this partnership perfectly echoes our mission. We anticipate forging a more inclusive and culturally diverse fabric within St. Louis."

About Hindi USA: St. Louis Chapter

Hindi USA is the local chapter of a nationally registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization devoted to promoting the Hindi language and Indian culture in the United States. Hosting diverse events and initiatives, the organization is dedicated to preserving and celebrating the rich heritage of the Hindi language and Indian culture. It offers educational resources and support to Hindi enthusiasts and speakers. Notably, HindiUSA is the largest non-profit Hindi language organization in the USA, with 4000 students learning Hindi and boasting 26 schools and over 350 volunteer teachers across the nation. Over the last five years, the Saint Louis chapter has experienced remarkable growth, expanding from 22 to 176 students and engaging over 30 volunteers. It currently stands as the largest Hindi language school in the entire midwestern states.

About the St. Louis Mosaic Project:

Launched in 2012 in response to an economic impact report highlighting St. Louis's lagging immigrant growth and the potential economic benefits of increasing its foreign-born population, the St. Louis Mosaic Project is a regional initiative managed professionally by the St. Louis Economic Development Partnership, World Trade Center St. Louis, and a 32-member committee. The project aims to position St. Louis as one of the fastest-growing major metropolitan area for immigration by 2025, employing strategies to attract and support immigrants, promoting regional prosperity through innovation and immigration. For more information about the St. Louis Mosaic Project, please visit www.StlMosaicProject.org or email ecohen@worldtradecenter-stl.com

###