

Global Networking: Career Building and Cross Cultural Connections in St. Louis

Tuesday, April 14
3:30 - 5:00 p.m.

Busch Student Center 251

Sponsored By: International Faculty and Staff Association

Speakers:

Elizabeth Cohen, Director, Mosaic Project
Suzanne LeLaurin, Sr. VP for Program, International Institute
Julia Ostropolsky, CEO, Bi-Lingual International Assistant Services
Jeri Peterson, Program Manager, St. Louis Regional Chamber
Hisako Matsuo, President, International Faculty and Staff Association

Moderator:

Simone Bregni, President-elect, International Faculty and Staff Association

The purpose of this panel is to promote a dialogue related to professional networking opportunities and challenges experienced by existing and emerging professionals in the St. Louis area. Members of the panel will consist of individuals who will share individual experiences and knowledge of local resources and networking possibilities for students and scholars who are interested in pursuing careers or research relevant to cross-cultural and global issues. This session is open to all who claim oneself as a global citizen.

