

Sr. Accountant

International PROOF Systems (IPS) is looking for a Senior Accountant for a two year project, with possible temp to hire opportunity. If the job description below is a fit, please send your resume` to rachelhankerson@internationalproofsystems.com.

Primary Skills: Accounting, Financial reports, SOX, GAAP, Evaluation and research

Duration: 24 months to hire

Tax Term: Only W2

This position will be responsible for preparing financial reporting for internal and external needs, supporting external audits, researching and documenting technical accounting issues, and ad hoc projects as necessary. The position will support the development and maintenance of Company-wide accounting policies, apply technical accounting guidelines, and perform accounting research, including the assessment and implementation of new accounting standards and the evaluation of the accounting for non-standard transactions

Job Description:

- This position involves the monthly close process, analyzing financial statements, reviewing and reconciling monthly accounts, preparing journal entries, researching and analyzing account differences, monthly/quarterly/annual reporting requirements, and internal control activities. Assistance in special projects will also be required.
- Ensures compliance with accounting policies, and GAAP.
- Coordinates the accounting, reporting, and management of direct expenses for IPS and New York State Department of Motor Vehicles. Works as a business partner and provides financial support to all department heads, including reporting and guidance to meet the direct expense budgets.

Required:

- MS in Accounting, Finance, or Economics. CPA required.
- 3+ years of experience in an accounting or financial position.
- Strong working knowledge of accounting principles is required to provide accurate financial reports. Knowledge of information systems will facilitate the completion of special projects.
- Preferred system knowledge: TM1, EDW, Oracle GL, Oracle OTC.

About International PROOF Systems

International PROOF Systems, LLC (IPS) is a Systems Design and Development Firm that improves antiquated processes and systems through advanced technology. IPS is currently embarking upon the world's first computerized license plates known as PROOF Smart Tags (PST). PST are computerized license plates that improves the validation of vehicle registration, auto insurance, and response time during the event of an emergency, through its embedded technology that bridges the infrastructure and communication protocols between multiple systems. PST has a universal mandate.