

Conflict in the South China Sea

An evening hosted by the World Affairs Council of St. Louis

Join the Discussion

Date & Time

April 20, 2017 from 5:30 PM to 7:30 PM

Location

Sheraton Clayton Plaza Hotel
7730 Bonhomme Ave

Featuring

Alphonse F. La Porta; U.S.
Ambassador

Retired from the U.S. Foreign Service after 38 years of service in the Department of State. He continues as a private consultant to the Department of Defense.

Ambassador La Porta was Ambassador to Mongolia in 1997-2000, president of the United States-Indonesia Society (USINDO) from 2004 through 2007, and is presently (pro bono) president of the Malaysia-America Foundation.

Details

Learn more about territorial disputes in the South China Sea that continue to be a source of tension and potential conflict between China and other countries.

Schedule

5:30 PM to 6:30 PM
Registration

Hors D'oeuvres and Soda
Cash bar

6:30 PM to 7:30 PM
Program
Followed by Q & A

Registration

$35 for the evening
$25 Student rate

To register for the event, please RSVP to chatfield@wac-stl.org or call our office at 314-727-9988.