St. Joseph’s Academy, a Catholic college-preparatory high school for young women in St. Louis, Missouri, is seeking a long-term Theology substitute teacher from mid-September through early December 2022. This temporary position will include teaching four sections of Church History to high school sophomores and may include teaching one section of Catholic Social Teaching to high school juniors. Candidates must have a bachelor’s degree or near completion of a degree in Theology, Religious Education, or similar. Teaching or ministry experience and familiarity with church history and Catholic Social Teaching are required. Familiarity with the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet is a plus. The position will include classroom management, assigning, grading student work, and posting grades using Canvas LMS. Interested candidates should email a cover letter and resume to employment@sja1840.org with “Fall 2022 Theology Opening” in the subject line.
